Hello Hello HELLO

Am trying to get the hang of writing again. I didn't know how long it has been since I sat down at the key board. My "Thinker" must have gone on on vacation, All of it must have not returned, but we will try to do without the part that makes any sense. I've never had to do without some help. but in an effort to let you know that I am still around, this so called EMail will testify that at least, Jim did a good job of letting you know that me and all my repair jobs have seen me through some annoying times. I'm held together by the Grace of GOD, and a lot of surgical thread. My most annoying trouble is trying to get my reading seeing ability to get back on track again. This has a bad affect on my train of thought and my one handed approach to find the right place to punch the keyboard. Jim has helped me a lot by at least telling family members that my spirit is willing, but my ability to communicate is limited to letting you know that I am I can still recognize a computer when I see one, but that is about all that I can do about it. I and machinery were never the best of friends even when I was blessed with more of my knowledge and sight.

To add to my missing the use of the correspondence, I got a message in my EMail that I had not used my Email for the last month or so, they were going to delete my use of said EMail so prepare to do without it. This sure came as a surprise to me. I thought that when you signed up for that you had it forever as long as you paid your fee. So, what if I didn't have any thing to say except my health problems, and who wants to hear about ninety plus year olds change of medicines from day to day. So I am going to send each of you a catalog of what all I'm ordering out of and each day I will send you a EMail and tell you what page to turn to see what is currently keeping me up and running. At least it will keep the EMail score keeper employed.

Since I have did my job of using the EMail I will have to go for now. But don't despair. I am going to my eye Doctor Monday and try to get glasses that fit me. The pair I got the last time don't work so good. At least I am blaming that on my quaint way I am spelling. I have to blame somebody. Beng Ninety plus couldn't have any thing too do with it.

So long for now. I think of you all the time and wish I could see and hug each one of you. This letter is also from Betty. She says HI to all.....James and Betty

Hi Family,

This is Jim sending a report on Dad and the Texas family in Lakeside. We are all doing amazingly well. Dad has had a couple of surgeries- cataract surgery in December (successful and seeing better every day) and last week he had a hernia repaired (laproscopically)- he was in and out the same day! He's getting around fine- Mom and Dad are both very alert: such a pleasure to have them so close. Mom is not out of bed very much due to her back condition, but Gunsmoke or some oldie is always blaring away in the background keeping her entertained. She gets up and eats a little more often at the table now (she turned 89 last month)

My wife Sue is at an English conference in Kentucky, our son Cole is finishing his MA in Architecture this May, and Adam is entering his Junior year at MSU majoring in English and French. I'm teaching art at Rider HS and directing a play this semester. We have been enjoying our spring break and are sad to go back to the "real world" tomorrow.

I added my gmail on the cc line if you need to get in touch with me- also for future reference, Mom and Dad dropped their old phone number and are using one line at the house- 940-692-3587- it has an answering machine, and we will get back to you if you call.

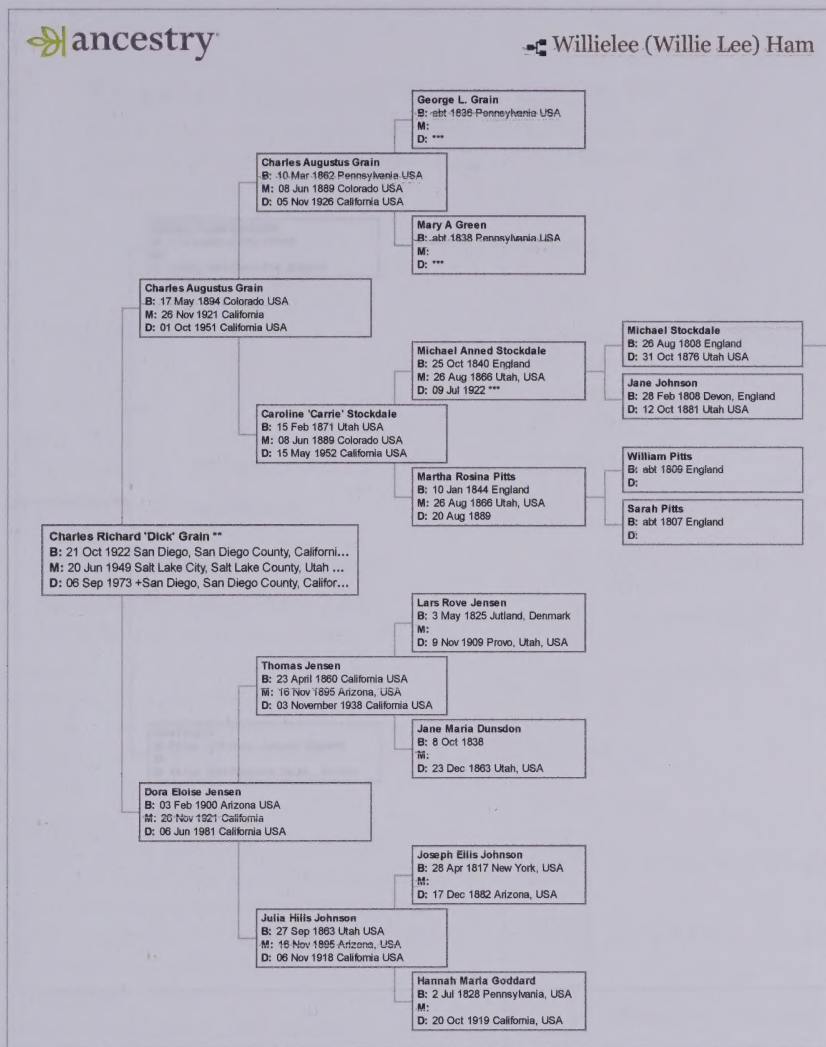

Dad may not have current emails on extended family- if you notice some of our close family is left off this letter, please forward it to them and ask them to reply with their current email addresses so we can keep everyone in the loop.

Love you all,
Happy Spring- Jim

Repko family

December 23, 2014 at 7:00 PM

Hi. Am going to send this now so I don't forget to do it. This is the corrections Will told me about.

1-Will's dad's full name is Wayne William Repko

2-County of Lansing, Michigan is Ingham County

3-Will's brother. Christopher Newman Repko ====put down as name of his father as unknown. Will's dad is not Christopher's dad.

ancestry

Christopher's dad.

4-Will's oldest sister, Mary Frances was born in Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan

5- Will was born at Sparrow Hospital in Lansing if you want to put that in your genealogy

6-Will's youngest sister, Biza's full name is Elizabeth Ann Repko Turner

7-Will's grandmother correct spelling of her name is. Elenor Marie Repko

Will was really impressed with everything you had on his family. And the corrections above is what he said needed corrected.

Hope this helps you. Love, Maryalice

December 2018

Merry Christmas to our family and friends,

Our wish for you for this Christmas season is that it is filled with everything you are hoping for. And that you will take the time to remember why we celebrate this time of the year.

As we come to the end of another year, we have a lot to look back on. We won't go into great detail, but here is a short recap of our year:

We are sorry to have to say it was a sad start to the year. In January Gayle's Dad passed away. Also in January Jim had cataract surgery. Early March had Gayle in for a hip replacement. In June Jim decided that work wasn't fun anymore, so on July 31st he retired from Northrop Grumman. In case you are wondering, Jim loves retirement and does NOT regret his decision. In September our granddaughter, Raelyn and her family (husband David, son David, and daughter Emery) moved back to the San Diego area. Now we get to enjoy our great-grandchildren more often. Also in September we spent two weeks in Montana visiting with Gayle's Mom and brother and his wife (Dale and Jody). As usual we had a wonderful time with lots of talking and laughing and lots of great food. In October we repeated the great visiting, talking, laughing, and eating while we were in Texas visiting Jim's Mom and sister and her husband (Pat and Ron). We also got to enjoy visiting with Jim's nieces and their families. What a fun two weeks we had with all of them. At the end of October, our oldest son, Jay, got married to Jennifer. The next day, November 1, Dusty (our oldest grandson) moved out to an apartment with a couple of friends. Since then we have been rearranging furniture and learning what it is like with just the two of us in the house.

We are happy to say that all of the family is doing well and we do love to spend time with all of them. The grandchildren are all growing up like crazy and so very busy with their lives. We consider it a real blessing that they and their parents all seem to still enjoy spending time with us (especially if Gayle makes the dips and/or desserts). It is official now; Gayle is the shortest one in the family. Even our granddaughter, Lilly-at age 13, is taller than Gayle. Of course that means she gets to let everyone else reach up for the tall stuff, so there is a plus.

Be sure you take the time to stop and smell the pine trees and cookies and to treasure your family and friends at this wonderful time of the year.

All of our best to each one of you!

And Happy New Year, too!

Love, Jim & Gayle

Tree hints (descendants of Caleb S. Wood son of Charles Wood) appeared 1 year ago. I am a descendant of Charles Wood to provide more detail on his family as well as two different sons of the Revolutionary War era, also named Charles Wood, who have sometimes been confused or confused with our Charles Wood. Jane and I have communicated about the Wood family for many years. © 1997-2021 Ancestry . . . been supportive and interested in my research, not only concerning our common ancestor Charles Wood, but also in clarification between our Charles Wood and two other sons of our era also named Charles Wood. We know that our Charles Wood was from a Virginia family, and not from Maryland, as some researchers in the past have believed. David Travillion Benton descends from Christopher Wood, son of Charles, while Anne Baker Hanks descends from Caleb S. Wood, son of Charles.

In the 1750s Caleb S. Wood (son of Charles) tried to obtain pension or bounty lands for himself and his siblings. Although his pension claim was rejected, his application provides many of the details of the children of Charles Wood and his wife Rowena who was called Rose. At some point in the application process by Caleb Wood and his agent who was trying to assist him, there was some confusion given, and we are unsure how this was originated, but the service stated prior to this was service of a totally different Charles Wood who was not our Charles Wood from Virginia who died in Roane County, TN. This might have been one of the reasons why the pension application made by Caleb Wood was rejected. There was a different Charles Wood that may have lived in Orange County, NC who served under Capt. John Sanderson and was at Valley Forge. His name may have been misread by the British at Chestnut for whom he fought during the Revolutionary War, according to his pension application made in 1813 in Orange County, NC as Charles Wood, 5420841.

Then there was yet another Charles Wood and he also lived in North Carolina—in Rowan County. This Charles Wood was born in Maryland and was the son of Charles Wood and Sarah Brighwell, but again, he is not the Charles Wood (1755-1823) wife Rowena (maiden name NOT Watson) who died in 1823 in Roane County, TN. However, some researchers have mixed this Charles of Maryland with our ancestor Charles Wood, going so far as to add a middle name

Charles Wood was the husband of Rosanna "Rosa" Wood (her maiden name was not Watson)

On August 2, 2020, my cousin Janet Baker Burks (descendant of Caleb S Wood son of Charles Wood) requested I update the memorial of Charles Wood to provide more detail on his family as well as two different men of the Revolutionary War era, also named Charles Wood, who have sometimes been mingled or confused with our Charles Wood. Janet and I have communicated about the Wood family for many years, and she has always been supportive and interested in my research, not only concerning our common ancestor Charles Wood, but also in the differentiation between our Charles Wood and two other men of that era also named Charles Wood. We know that our Charles Wood was from a Virginia family, and not from Maryland, as some researchers in the past have believed. David Travillion Bunton descends from Christopher Wood, son of Charles, while Janet Baker Burks descends from Caleb S. Wood, son of Charles.

In the 1850s Caleb S. Wood (son of Charles) tried to obtain pension or bounty lands for himself and his siblings. Although his pension claim was rejected, his application provides many of the names of the children of Charles Wood and his wife Rosanna who was called Rosa. At some point in the application process by Caleb Wood and his agent who was trying to assist him, there was misinformation given, and we are unsure how this was originated, but the service stated points to the war service of a totally different Charles Wood who was not our Charles Wood born in Virginia who died in Roane County, TN. This might have been one of the reasons why the pension application made by Caleb Wood was rejected. There was a different Charles Wood than ours who lived in Orange County, NC who served under Capt. John Summers and was at Valley Forge. This same man had been imprisoned by the British at Charleston for about 14 months during the Revolutionary War, according to his pension application made in 1818 in Orange County, NC (Charles Wood, S42084).

Then there was yet another Charles Wood and he also lived in North Carolina--in Rowan County. This Charles Wood was born in Maryland and was the son of Charles Wood and Sarah Brightwell, but again, he is not the Charles Wood (1755-1823) wife Rosanna (maiden name NOT Watson) who died in 1823 in Roane County, TN. However, some researchers have mixed this Charles of Maryland with our ancestor Charles Wood, going so far as to add a middle name of Caleb and promoting our ancestor's name as Charles Caleb Wood born in 1755 in Maryland. Our ancestor Charles Wood (1755-1823) was born in Virginia from an old Virginia family, and David Travillion Bunton has never located any document with his middle name of Caleb or even the initial "C." It appears that the Maryland error stems from past Wood researchers confusing these two different Charles Wood men and trying to link our Charles Wood (wife Rosanna) as coming from Frederick County, Maryland when in fact it was the Charles Wood of Rowan County, NC who was from Frederick County, Maryland. Details on the Charles Wood of Maryland family can be found in "The Wood - Woods Family Magazine" Vol II no. 3 (July 1974) where a history of that family is given beginning on page 89. On page 97 the article states that on March 2, 1810 Charles Wood of Rowan County, NC gave all his interest in some family property to his brother Basil Wood of Frederick County, Maryland. At this same time, our Charles Wood (wife Rosanna) lived in Roane County, TN.

To further clarify this, the following RESEARCH NOTICE is given by David Travillion Bunton: Concerning Charles Wood who died in 1823 in Roane County, TN...he was born in Virginia (NOT MARYLAND) ---and his death year is given in a rejected pension application made by his son Caleb S Wood in Roane County, TN. Charles Wood is enumerated on the 1790 Union District SC census and on said census enumerated very close to him were younger brother William Wood (who was basically disinherited with a one shilling acknowledgement by their father John Wood in John's 1783 will made in Amherst Co, VA). Also there was Mary Wood who was enumerated as Molly Wood. She was the widow of Charles' brother John Wood JR. Also enumerated in the Union District, SC census was Abraham Lemaster, who had married Sarah Wood, the sister of Charles Wood. It should be noted that John Wood gave permission for his daughter Sarah Wood to marry Abraham Lemaster which took place on 26 September 1781 in Amherst County, VA. Charles Wood is listed in the Amherst County, VA tax records just before his removal to South Carolina. Charles Wood's son Caleb S Wood was born in Union District, SC and census records for Caleb Wood support this. After leaving SC, Charles Wood moved to NC for a few years (not Rowan County NC) and was in Roane Co, TN by 1808 per the following deeds:

Roane County, TN Deed Record book D-1, pages 113-115 Deed of Conveyance from John Smith T to Charles Wood for 100 Acres Land This indenture made the fourth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eight between John Smith T of the district of Saint Geneva and Louisiana Territory of the one part and Charles Wood of the county of Roane and State of Tennessee of the other part...unto the said Charles Wood, his heirs and assigns forever, a certain tract or parcel of land containing one hundred acres more or less, lying and being in the County of Roane and including the spring known by the name of Yourks Spring...Signed, sealed, and delivered in the presence of Caleb Wood and Matthias Millar.

Roane County, TN Deed Record Book D-1, pages 122-124 Deed of Conveyance from Charles Wood to Lot Tallant - 100 Acres Including the York Spring This indenture made this sixteenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ten between Charles Wood of the County of Roane and State of Tennessee of the one part and Lot Tallant...

Although the 1810 census for Roane County, TN was destroyed by the British in the War of 1812, based on this deed and other court records David Travillion Bunton has researched, Charles Wood remained in Roane County, TN until his death in 1823.

A different Charles Wood lived in Rowan County, NC in 1790 and onwards while my ancestor Charles Wood was living in Union District SC, and later when Charles Wood (wife Rosanna) was living in Tennessee, the other Charles Wood who was from Frederick County, Maryland was being sued by his brother Basil Wood concerning family property in Maryland (I have court records identifying that the Charles Wood in Rowan County, NC was from Frederick Co, MD and he was the son of Charles Wood SR and Sarah Brightwell). The Charles Wood who was born in Maryland who was the son of Charles Wood SR and Sarah Brightwell lived in Rowan Co, NC while Charles Wood (wife Rosanna) had removed from Amherst Co, VA to SC, then briefly in NC and then Tennessee.

These papers detail a court case where the Charles Wood who was born in Maryland had a brother Basil Wood who sued Charles Wood (the one born in Maryland) in 1809 and the lawsuit details that Charles Wood's residence was Rowan County, NC. So in 1809 and 1810 (when payment was made to Basil Wood) the Charles Wood who was born in Maryland (son of Charles Wood Sr and Sarah Brightwell) was living in Rowan County, NC while my ancestor Charles Wood (wife Rosanna) was living in Roane County, TN as evidenced by the 1808 and 1810 Roane County, TN land transactions which names Charles Wood "of Roane County, TN."

Francis Wood was a younger brother of Charles Wood (wife Rosa) and Francis Wood who was born 4 April 1763 in Charlotte County, VA (per his RW pension application) entered service from Amherst Co, VA in 1780 and said Francis Wood later died in Bedford County, TN. Additionally, David Travillion Bunton can report that Y dna testing for many Wood males has verified the paternal Wood lineage and established (along with autosomal dna) that Charles Wood does match Francis Wood as well as John Wood Jr. Autosomal DNA also links Paul Wood and Silas Wood to the family---these are all sons of John Wood who died in Amherst Co, VA in 1783. Autosomal matches are also established for descendants of Sarah Wood, wife of Abraham Lemaster. Research by David Travillion Bunton shows that Charles Wood, Paul Wood, Co, NC while Charles Wood (wife Rosanna) had removed from Amherst Co, VA to NC, born in Maryland who was the son of Charles Wood SR and Sarah Brightwell lived in Roane and he was the son of Charles Wood SR and Sarah Brightwell). The Charles Wood who was records identifying that the Charles Wood in Roane County, NC was from Frederick Co, MD was being sued by his brother Basil Wood concerning family property in Maryland (I have count was living in Tennessee, the other Charles Wood who was from Frederick County, Maryland Charles Wood was living in Union District SC, and later when Charles Wood (wife Rosanna) A different Charles Wood lived in Roane County, NC in 1790 and onwards within my ancestor Charles Wood remained in Roane County, TN until his death in 1823.

and Silas Wood signed a Prince Edward County, Virginia petition in 1776, however the minister who collected the signers also recruited from Amherst County, VA as well as Prince Edward County.

To summarize: Charles Wood who died in 1823 in Roane County, TN was born in Virginia, and it is misinformation that he was born in Maryland -- this information stemming from the error where researchers confused the two different Charles Wood men, ie Charles Wood of Frederick Co, MD who later lived in Rowan County, NC versus Charles Wood of Amherst Co, VA, Union District, SC, briefly NC, and finally Roane County, TN. Additionally, research questions remain concerning the Revolutionary War service of Charles Wood (wife Rosanna) because there were several Charles Wood soldiers who served in the Revolutionary War. Apparently Charles (wife Rosa) was not at Valley Forge or in Capt John Summers company because yet another Charles Wood (of Orange County, NC) claimed service in several companies including Capt John Summers at Valley Forge, and this Charles Wood of Orange Co, NC was imprisoned by the British at Charleston, SC for about 14 months.

However, it can be established that our Charles Wood (1755-1823) was a Patriot. He did sign a Virginia petition in 1776 with two of his brothers Paul Wood and Silas Wood.

Additional NOTICE by David Travillion Bunton: Charles Wood was NOT named Charles CALEB Wood. Charles Wood's wife was named Rosanna and she was called Rosa. Her maiden name was NOT Watson. I have corresponded with the researcher who "got the Watson name started by error" and it has taken on a life of its own. NO Watson connection. Rosa Watson or Rosanna Watson or Mary Rosanna Watson daughter of Col Henry Watson has often been repeated, without source. I cannot find any Watson connection or relevant Col Henry Watson after over 4 decades of research.

What is accurate is that our Charles Wood was the son of John Wood and his wife Sarah Bird Wood. John Wood died in Amherst County, VA in a part which had formerly been Albemarle County, VA at one time. David Travillion Bunton

Charles and Rosanna Wood are known the be parents of: Thomas C. Wood, Caleb S. Wood, Jesse Wood, Christopher Wood, Francis Wood, John Wood, William Osborn Wood, Anna Wood Davis, Nancy Wood Wilkinson, Rosanna Wood Matlock. David Travillion Bunton is the 4th great grandson of Charles Wood and Rosanna.

Sir:

In reply to your letter of the 22nd ultimo, relative to the informal application of the children of Rosa Wood, dec^d, I can only say that the declaration was sworn before a Justice of the Peace, who was, and is, a member of the ?Quorum Court, which is a court of record, at the time the court was in session. That it was not done in the courthouse, yet it was done before a court of record. This is a small matter, and one that can be easily ?remedied. The family record of Caleb Wood shows that he was born in 1791, but there are many children older than him, which can be proven.

??? from the military records of North Carolina will state, that it is traditionally known to the children, that their father was imprisoned by the British at Charleston, S.C. during the War of Revolution which is sufficient to identify his service.

I am respectfully your obdn^t. servt,
George W. Talbot

Source: <https://www.ancestry.com/family-tree/person/tree/67797823/person/36176590901/facts>

State of North Carolina, County of Caswell: Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions October Term 1832 On this 8th day of October in the year of our Lord 1832 personally appeared before Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the County and State aforesaid, James Rainey, John R. Harrison and James McMullion [sic, McMullin?] the Justices presiding – Richard Martin a resident of the County of Caswell and State of North Carolina, aged Seventy Seven years on the 29th day of January 1832; who being duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following Declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of Congress passed June 7th 1832: That he enlisted in the Army of the United States in the year 1776 with Captain Moore; (thinks his name was Roger Moore, perhaps some other name) and served in the fourth Regiment of the North Carolina line under the following named officers; -- That at the time of this applicants first enlistment ___ Polk [Thomas Polk] was the Commanding Colonel, James Thaxton [sic, James Thackston] was the Lieutenant Colonel, ___ Davis was the Major¹ and ___ Moore was the Captain – That some time after the troops were ordered to the northern states: and this applicant with them was accordingly marched to Georgetown in the State of Maryland. The officers under whom this applicant marched was Colonel James Thackston, and as he now thinks, Major George Polk and Captain Goodman [William Goodman]– they were stationed in Georgetown for some short time and while there the troops were inoculated with the smallpox and remained until they recovered their health. That at the time of his enlistment he resided in the County of Caswell and State of North Carolina – and as he understood it he enlisted for a term of eighteen months, But he was held and retained in service for the space of two years and six months and so reported by his officers – and after serving the time of two years and six months as before stated, this applicant was discharged – his discharge he held until some time subsequent to the revolution when he sent it to the Commissioners who sat in Hillsboro to enable this applicant to draw a land warrant and he has never seen it since. It is impossible for this applicant at this distant day to recollect all the officers under whom he served during the space of the two years and six months as before stated; There were too many changes, and the Regiment being reduced placed this applicant under different officers; -- From Georgetown the troops with whom the applicant served were marched into the State of Pennsylvania, in this State this applicant was at the Battle at Germantown [October 4, 1777]; he was also at the Battle of Brandywine [September 11, 1777], and afterwards in the Battle of Monmouth [June 28, 1778]. These are all the engagements in which this applicant was; -- This applicant was marched through, and in the several States in North Carolina, Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York. This applicant entered the United States Army some time in the Spring of the year 1776 and left the same sometime in the fall of the year 1778, perhaps in the month of October. This applicant would state that at the several Battles where he was that General Washington was the Commanding Officer; When the regiments were reduced and other regiments were filled up, this applicant fell in the first Regiment under Col. Thomas Clark; this applicant's Company being commanded by Captain John Scull [John Gambier Scull]. This applicant was discharged by Col. Clark at a place called Kings ferry on North River. He hereby relinquishes every Claim whatever to a pension or an annuity except the present and he declares that his name is not on the pension roll of any agency in any State and if any he has no knowledge of it. Sworn to and Subscribed the day and year aforesaid. Test: S/ Paul A. Haralson, Clk S/ Richard Martin

1 Sic, at the time referenced by applicant, William Lee Davidson and Charles McLean were the majors of the 4th Regiment.

Merry Christmas to all:

Wishing you all have a merry Christmas and a safe and healthy new year

The picture above shows Lori enjoying her hibiscus flowers last summer. This is her favorite flower and she has probably a dozen or so planted all over the yard. Mike is shown in his favorite recliner taking one of his several daily naps. He only gets about five hours of sleep a night so catches up with his daytime naps. Notice that Lori is learning to ride a horse. She did pretty good, didn't even fall off.

This year has been pretty much a boring one with not much exciting to write about except for the many health issues which I'm sure the reader won't mind if I don't elaborate. The last two Christmas holidays Bill spent in the hospital so we are praying this year he stays healthy and so far so good.

Two of the pictures show Lori and Bill's hobbies. The shell lamps are made by Bill and Lori and the shopping bag decorations are made by Lori. A few of the shell lamps have been sold but most of them are given away. Bill has given many away to the doctors and nurses who have given him exceptional service. Needless to say he gets priority service. For example one of his surgeons told him today that he was family and to call him anytime. Lori also gives her decorated bags away. The bottom right picture shows us with Prayaa Popat (our Indian friends daughter) at her school on grandparents day where we were her proxy grandparents for the day since her real grandparents were all in India.

Mike and Bill don't travel far from home anymore because of the uncertainty of Bill's health. The doctors who have treated him for a long time marvel that he is still alive! Lori did visit Mike, Karen and the grandkids in VA in the summer and spent several days at their lake house on Lake Anna in VA. In Oct the three of us went to Falmouth, MA on the cape for three days to walk the beach and look for shells. We struck it rich and came home with a bushel of good scallop shells suitable for making the shell lamps.

We were pleased to host Mike & Karen's family plus a friend of Kristina's and their two dogs at Thanksgiving. The seven people and two dogs made for a memorable and fun time for the family to be all together. If Lori's health holds she will fly down to VA to spend Christmas with them on 22 Dec and fly home on New Years Eve.

Please remember to keep Christ in Christmas, i.e. no "happy holidays" crap! I ask one cashier why she didn't say "merry Christmas" and she said that management didn't want to offend the non-Christians!

Mike, Lori, Bill

Conditions related to Heart Attack

1 - Coronary Artery Disease (A Condition where the major blood vessels supplying the heart are narrowed.) Another way to say this; Causes include a build-up of plaque rupture in coronary arteries. Symptoms include chest pain at rest or on exertion, sweating, and shortness of breath.

2 - Heart Failure (A progressive Heart disease that affects pumping action of heart muscles.) it is a condition where the heart suddenly stops beating. It usually results from an electrical disturbance in the heart. It's not the same as a heart attack. Symptoms include chest pain, lightheadedness, fainting, palpitations and shortness of breath. Immediate CPR or use of a defibrillator is required.

3 - Angina (Chest discomfort or shortness of breath caused when heart muscles receive insufficient oxygen-rich blood.)

4 - Sudden Cardiac Arrest (A condition where the heart suddenly stops beating.)

5 - Stroke (Occurs when the supply of blood to the brain is reduced or blocked completely.)

6 - Arteriosclerosis Atherosclerosis (A condition where the arteries become narrowed and hardened.)

7 - Acute Coronary Syndrome (A condition resulting from reduced blood flow to the heart.)

8 - Myocardial Infarction (Death of heart muscle caused by a loss of blood supply. Caused by blocked arteries Different from of a regular heart attack a myocardial infarction occurs when the blood supply to the heart muscle is cut off suddenly)

Conditions related to Pulmonary Edema

1 - Heart Failure (A Progressive heart disease that affects pumping action of the heart muscles.)

2 - Pleural Effusion (An excessive collection of fluid in the pleural cavity.)

3 - Pulmonary Embolism (A condition in which blood vessel in the lung(s) gets blocked by a blood clot.)

Coronary Artery Disease

A condition where the major blood vessels supplying the heart are narrowed the usual cause is atherosclerosis. Symptoms include chest pain and shortness of breath. Lifestyle changes, medications and procedures are treatment.

Coronary occlusion

Partial or Complete Obstruction

A coronary occlusion is the partial or complete obstruction of blood flow in a coronary artery. This condition may cause a heart attack. In some patients coronary occlusion causes only mild pain, tightness or vague discomfort which may be ignored; however, the myocardium, the muscle tissue of the heart, may be damaged.

Each listed cause of death usually happened to more than one person. Sometimes dozens mostly associated with heart problems.

The Heart Causes, which are of many types, as you can see, are extensive in member of death causes. I looked up what each cause means and hope that helps you to understare more about each problem.

Diseases associated with the Lungs were next in number of persons. I found it interesting that there were so few of cancer causes along with the lungs deceases, because of so many smokers in that time in history.

Way back in older times old age or natural death as a cause of death was used a lot. Even when available doctors was around the doctors used the term. Of course, there was times a doctor wasn't available, so an older person was probably reported by family members or friends as dying of old age or natural causes, because from lack of knowledge.

2 - Glioma (A tumor that originates in the glial cells of the brain or spinal cord.)

3 - Cancer (A disease resulting from uncontrolled growth and division of abnormal cells.)

4 - Tumor (Abnormal growth of tissues that may or may not be cancerous.)

5 - Astrocytoma (Astrocytoma's are a type of brain tumor. They originate in a particular kind of glial cells.)

Bronchopneumonia

Bronchopneumonia is a subtype of pneumonia. It is the acute inflammation of the bronchi, accompanied by inflamed patches in the nearby lobules of the lungs. It is often contrasted with lobar pneumonia; but, in clinical practice, the types are difficult to easily, as the patterns usually overlap. Bronchopneumonia often leads to lobar pneumonia as the infection progresses. The same organism may cause one type of pneumonia in one patient, and another in a different patient.

Pneumonia

It is an infection of the air sacs in one or both the lungs. Pneumonia is caused due to infection by bacteria, virus or fungi.

Kidney Failure --- Bright's Disease

Bright's disease is a historical classification of Kidney diseases that would be described in modern medicine as acute or chronic nephritis. It was characterized by swelling and the presence of albumin in the urine, and was frequently accompanied by high blood pressure and heart disease.

Kidney failure occurs when your kidneys lose the ability to filter waste from your blood sufficiently. Chronic kidney disease, also called chronic kidney failure, describes the gradual loss of kidney function. Your kidneys filter wastes and excess fluids from your blood, which are then excreted in your urine. When chronic kidney disease reaches an advanced stage, dangerous levels of fluid, electrolytes and wastes can build up in your body. In the early stages of chronic Kidney disease, you may have few signs or symptoms. Chronic kidney disease may not become apparent until your kidney function fails.

Conditions related to Sepsis (Blood Poisoning)

- 1 - Septic Shock (A widespread infection causing organ failure and dangerously low blood pressure.)
- 2 - Systemic inflammatory response syndrome (Systemic inflammatory response syndrome (SIRS), also known as a multi-system inflammatory state.)
- 3 - Pneumonia (An infection of the air sacs in one or both the lungs.)
- 4 - Meningitis (An infection of meninges, Protective tissue of the brain.)
- 5 - Meningococcal disease (Meningococcal disease describes infections caused by the bacterium Neisseria meningitides.)
- 6 - Cellulitis (A serious bacterial infection of the skin.)

7 - Disseminated Intravascular Coagulation (A condition where blood clots are excessively formed in the body's blood Vessels.)

Cancer

1 - Prostate Cancer (A condition in which the flow of urine is blocked due to the enlargement of prostate Gland,)

2 - Breast Cancer (a cancer that develops in the breast cells and progresses in stages.)

3 - Lung Cancer (a cancer which begins in the cells of the lung.)

4 - Blood Cancer - Leukemia (A disease resulting from uncontrolled growth and division of abnormal cells.)

5 - Colon Cancer (A cancer resulting from uncontrolled growth and division of abnormal cells.)

6 - Breast Cancer that has metastasize to the bone - Breast Cancer that has spread to the bones is known as Secondary (metastatic) breast cancer in the bones also known as bone Metastases or bone mets. This can happen through the blood or lymphatic system. It can be treated but not cured. The cancer in the bones are made up of breast cells this is a very painful cancer

Diabetes

Basically "sugar diabetes" is an informal name for diabetes Mellitus which is the broad term under which type 1 and type 2- diabetes are categorized. The term was used to identify disease where sugar Levels were abnormally high, as opposed to diabetes insipidus (a condition characterized by extreme thirst and urination.)

Naturally and Old Age Cause of Death

"Old age" is not truly a cause of death in and of itself. To "die of old age" means that someone has died naturally from an ailment associated with aging. The same usually goes for "dying of natural causes."

Death

Death is the permanent cessation of all biological functions that sustain a living organism. The remains of a living organism begin to decompose shortly after death. It is an inevitable process eventually occurring in all living organisms.

Suicide

Suicide, from Latin suicidium, is "the act of taking one's own life". Attempted suicide or nonfatal suicidal behavior is self-injury with at least some desire to end one's life that does not result in death. Assisted suicide is when one individual helps another bring about their own death indirectly via providing either advice or the means to the end. This is in contrast to euthanasia, where another person takes a more active role in bringing about a person's death.

Arthritis

A joint disorder which features inflammation of one or more Joints The causes depend on the type of arthritis - While osteoarthritis is caused due to wear-and-tear of joint cartilages as age progresses, rheumatoid arthritis is an autoimmune disease. Symptoms of arthritis include pain and stiffness in joints, difficulty in movement, etc. Treatments vary depending on the type of arthritis. The treatment focuses on reducing symptoms and improving quality of life.

Rheumatoid Arthritis

Rheumatoid arthritis is a chronic inflammatory disorder that can affect more than just your joints. In some people, the condition can damage a wide variety of body systems, including the skin, eyes, lungs, heart and blood vessels.

Unlike the wear-and-tear damage of Osteoarthritis rheumatoid arthritis affects the lining of your joints, causing a painful swelling that can eventually result in bone erosion and joint deformity.

Rheumatoid arthritis signs and symptoms may vary in severity and may even come and go. Periods of increased disease activity, called flares, alternate with periods of relative remission ----- when the swelling and pain fade or disappear. Over time, rheumatoid arthritis can cause joints to deform and shift out of place.

There may be other illnesses or deaths, but this is all I could find. This is Grandpa George Dallas Ham's family tree and Grandma Mary Lorene Gibbs family tree going back in time as far as there where written records. I will work on Mother's side of the family later on I have some things to do first. Hope this gives you the information you were looking for.

Please excuse any spelling mistakes

Each listed cause of death usually happened to more than one person. Sometimes dozens mostly associated with heart problems.

Of course, there was times a doctor wasn't available, so an older person was probably reported by family members or friends as dying of old age or natural causes, because from lack of knowledge.

My grandmother Mary Gibbs Ham once told me she thought that her husband Grandpa George's Mother, Margrett Emily Martin died of a "broken heart." Margrett's oldest son Daniel (Georges bother) was very prominent in the small town he lived in, and his wife Hattie was very social. She hated it she had to take her mother-in-law to social events with her. So when our grandpa George Ham decided it was time to move on (which he did often, another story) leaving a fantastic crop of peanuts to his brother. His brother Daniel caught the departing Ham family on their way out of the area, bringing with him their mother Margrett and all her belongs; saying to them they had to take her with them, because his wife wouldn't have her around any longer. Of course Grandma said she would take care of her. This betrayal of her son broke Margrett's heart, because she was also a social person and liked living with the older son in town near her friends. Grandma said she spent most of her time sitting in the yard under a tree just staring into space. My grandmother said Margrett didn't like her, which didn't help matters. Margrett was always criticizing Grandma for one thing or the other. Her biggest complaint was that Grandma spent more time playing with her children than getting up every morning, and cleaning her already clean house until it sparkled. She put her children first, and I remember how wonderful she was to me. She was a great cook, clean and so sweet. She died of Congestive heart failure in her sleep.

She says to the mortician, "Whatever this cost, I'm very satisfied. You did an excellent job and I'm very grateful. How much did you spend?"

To her astonishment, the mortician presents her with the blank check. "There's no charge," he says.

"No, really, I must compensate you for the cost of that exquisite blue suit!" the woman says.

"Honestly, ma'am," the mortician says, "It cost nothing. You see, a deceased gentleman of about your husband's size was brought in shortly after you left yesterday, and he was wearing an attractive blue suit. I asked his wife if she minded him going to his grave wearing a black suit instead, and she said it made no difference as long as he looked nice. Then it was just a matter of switching the heads."

come with me" as he reaches into the window to take the car keys out of the ignition.

The man shouts, "Don't do that! I'm afraid that you'll find the gun in my glove compartment!" At this the cop pulls his hand out of the window and says, "Wait here" as he returns to his car and calls for backup.

Soon there are cars, cops and helicopters all over, everywhere you look. The man is quickly dragged out of his car, handcuffed and taken towards a cop car.

However, just before he is put in the car and taken away a cop walks up to him and says, while pointing at the cop that pulled him over, "Sir, this officer tells us that you had committed a robbery, had stolen loot in the trunk of your car, and had a loaded gun in your glove compartment. However, we didn't find any of these things in your car."

The man replies, "Yeah, and I bet that liar said I was speeding too!"

Preacher's Wife

A couple were going on a vacation together but the wife had an emergency at work. So they agreed the husband would go as planned and his wife would meet him at the hotel the next day.

When the husband got to his hotel and had checked in, he thought he should send his wife a quick email letting her know he'd got there ok.

As he typed in her email address, he made a typo and his email was sent to an elderly preacher's wife whose instead. It just so happened that her husband had sadly died just the day before.

When the grieving old preacher's wife checked her emails, she read the one from the holiday maker, let out an awful, loud, piercing scream, and fainted on the floor.

At the sound of her falling, her family rushed into the room. They tended to her and then looked at her computer and saw this email on her screen:

Dearest Wife,

Just checked in to my room. Everything is prepared for your arrival tomorrow.

P.S. It sure is hot down here.

Barbara Wallace has plenty of things on her to-do list as she enters retirement following 17 years with the San Diego County Sheriff's Department.

Wallace's last day on the job at the sheriff's Ramona station was Aug. 9. She said farewell after serving as the station's crime prevention specialist since December 2009.

Over the years she's provided law enforcement education to the public, coordinated events with volunteers and organized community meetings. One of her responsibilities has been to help seniors run the Project Lifesaver program that locates missing Alzheimer's and autistic residents with equipment provided by the Kiwanis Club of Ramona.

Highlights of the 59-year-old's career include participating in Ramona's riverbed cleanup and working with apartment staff on safety inspections of their buildings. Her training in ornamental horticulture through classes taken at Cuyamaca College came in handy as she inspected not only apartments, but also schools and businesses, for the Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design program.

"I enjoyed working with apartments," said Wallace, who also looks forward to spending more time with her husband, Ron. "The managers and management teams are very professional and focused on providing great places to live."

The El Cajon resident has been a believer in continuing education ever since she graduated from El Cajon Valley High School in 1976. She attended University of San Diego and pursued certificates in criminal justice from Grossmont College. She also completed a Project Manager program and a Grant Funding certificate program through San Diego State University's College of Extended Studies.

Her interest in law enforcement goes back to her childhood when she enjoyed watching the "Adam-12" TV series based on police officers patrolling the streets of Los Angeles. At 16, she volunteered as a Sheriff's Explorer, joining the ranks of young adults trained to participate in community affairs and non-hazardous law enforcement activities.

Within two years after graduating high school she landed a job at the Marshal's Office in downtown San Diego where she worked until 1983. As a non-sworn cadet and deputy, she worked mainly as an office assistant in uniform. She ran across some interesting cases while the office enforced rulings from municipal courts that ran the gamut of evictions, collecting money from businesses that owed sums based on judgments and arresting suspects on warrants.

Her life took a divergent path in 1983 when she opened two retail stores on Fairmount Avenue in east San Diego. The stores tied into her interest in law enforcement and martial arts as she holds a master black belt in Kung Fu San Soo, a martial art based on techniques from all over China. She sold martial arts supplies at her Dragon Fist Martial Arts Supply and police equipment at her Cop Shop, which were two separate businesses in the same building.

Benefits included participating in different health and wellness programs offered by the county, which not only improved her health but also motivated her to meet benchmarks that helped her lose a beach cruiser, mountain bike and exercise bike.

"I've always been a crime prevention specialist with the sheriff's," Wallace said. "I got to help people and educate people. It really makes a difference. The community partnerships have been great. Ramona has some very big stars here."

Although Wallace was not too happy about being reassigned from the San Jacinto sheriff's station to Ramona sheriff's in December 2009, her friend and fellow crime prevention specialist Marie Madden had a premonition things might work out. During a chance meeting of the two at the post office, Madden wrote an encouraging note to Wallace with the words "Good Luck, Healed Blessings." Wallace has kept that note since 2009, reminding her constantly of how fortuitous those words turned out to be. She said she returned to San Jacinto after only six months in Ramona, but her heart pulled her back to Ramona when she requested a Ramona assignment in August 2010.

"The last assignment was by choice because I put in for the request," she said. "I would rather drive up here for the quality of life and the job."

Looking ahead, Wallace intends to be more involved in community service through her volunteer activities with Twentystars International, which she has been active with since 1992, and Ramona Woman's Club, which she joined in 2011 and is currently its first vice president.

She will also continue working with the Honorary Deputy Sheriff's Association, which raises funds to support law enforcement. Wallace said she's interested in helping run projects for the San Jacinto Sheriff's Museum at 2184 San Diego Ave. in Old Town. And she hopes to strengthen contact with Ramona by attending Palomar Health meetings of the Community Action Council of Ramona/Juana/ Warner Springs.

She doesn't have enough to keep her busy, she's interested in finishing two martial arts forms books.

Retiring sheriff's staffer Barbara Wallace is also an experienced retailer, hypnotherapist and martial arts practitioner. Julie Gallant

She spent a large portion of her two decades in retail simultaneously working as a polygraph examiner. In 1989, she also received a doctoral degree in clinical hypnotherapy from the American Institute of Hypnosis, enabling her to lead one-on-one-sessions with people seeking relief from anxiety and support for improved confidence. Her work circled back to law enforcement, and she became a crime prevention specialist at the sheriff's Santee station in November 2001.

"I wanted to relax and have the assurance of health insurance and retirement benefits," Wallace said. "People have dreams of being self-employed but it's a lot of work. There are benefits to working for the county."

Benefits included participating in different health and wellness programs offered by the county, which not only improved her health but also incentivized her to meet benchmarks that helped her win a beach cruiser, mountain bike and exercise bike.

"I've always been a crime prevention specialist with the sheriff's," Wallace said. "I get to help people and educate people. It really makes a difference. The community partnerships have been great. Ramona has some very big stars here."

Wallace has kept that note since 2009, reminding her constantly of how fortuitous those words turned out to be. And she hopes to maintain contact with Ramona by attending Palomar Health meetings of the Community Action Council of Ramona/Julian/Warner Springs.

As if that's not enough to keep her busy, she's interested in finishing two martial arts forms books.

"I've been very blessed with being able to retire and do the things I want to do," she said.
